SPORTS GOTCH TO JOIN JEFFRIES' CAMP

BEN LOMOND, Cal., May 23.—Frank Gotch, champion wrestler of the world, will join the Jeffries staff of trainers not later than June 5, according to telegraphic advices received from the wrestler today. Gotch wires that he would start immediately after his match with Zbyrko and he should land at Ben Lomond not later than the fifth. He will be the last of the additions to the Jeffries training camp, for Jim Corbett will precede him.

After the strenuous Sunday experience in camp, Jeffries took life easy today. Early in the day the trout fishing lure became too strong for him and he gave the day to the beautiful San Lorenzo river. The only training was a spin on the road late in the morning. Those who have been in the training camp boasting for Grancy for referee have about given it up as a bad job. It is now well understood by Jeffries and his followers that Tex Rickard intends to act.

Nat Goodwin, actor and sportsman, will arrive tomorrow and remain for a week as one of the entertainers of the former champion.

ENGLAND NOW FIGHT CRAZY

(By Eddie Smith.)
Chicago, May 24.—Packer McFarland, Chicago's lightweight fighter who has hopes of meeting Ad Wolgast in the ring for the championship when he returns to this country, is immensely popular among the sporting fraternity abroad. His willingness to adopt the suggestions of the English press when he was negotiating for his match with Freddie Welsh and his determined fight for Eugene Corri as referee of the contest were two points that brought him into high favor and as a result he rules a favorite in the betting.

Packer's personality alone is enough to win many friends, but the fact that he put himself into English hands when he was arranging the Welsh fight has made him well liked by the people. And what is more, he has "Fashion Plate" Jimmy Britt in his camp and James Edward is probably the most popular fighter that ever went there.

Britt Proves Good Booster.
James is a member of the National Sporting club and highly respected and has been a strong booster for Packer. Although Jimmy has announced his retirement from the ring he is training the Chicago fighter and will be his chief adviser when Packer is sent after the British lightweight.

Britt is just the kind of an adviser that Packer needs, somebody full of confidence, aggressiveness and shrewdness and his aid will be a big factor to the stock yards fighter.

Word from abroad reached this side of the Atlantic from three or four sources and all bear out the story that the little Irishman is not a stranger in a strange land.

Callahan Praises Packer.
When Packer steps into the ring with the Englishman fully $20,000 will back him, according to a letter received here from Jimmy Britt. Tom Callahan says:

"Packer has won himself many admirers and backers in his stay abroad, and although few have seen him perform, they judge his ability by his bout with Jimmy Britt, whom he stopped in this country in six rounds. You know James is about as fellow as any American that ever trod on foreign soil and James' word goes a big way in sporting circles on the other side. He is a member of the National Sporting club and has touted Packer so strongly that I have no doubt but the every cent of $20,000 will be wagered on him."

"The National Sporting club people are all a wealthy lot, and judging them from Eugene Corri, also a member, who thinks nothing of betting $10,000 would not be surprised if McFarland's backing would not go to double that amount. Packer's ability was lauded greatly by Doc Krone when the latter was abroad and the English papers printed much about Packer's great fighting."

Loss Means Much to Packer.
"England is fight crazy, especially over this match, and we Americans cannot realize the intense interest in the contest. From what I know of both men I am sure McFarland will win. He was in excellent condition when I left him abroad only a short time ago, and Packer is the kind of a fellow who knows how to handle himself. He will be fit. Should he lose, however, the match will be a financial failure to him. The loser is to get $1,500, with $6,000 going to the winner. But a side bet of $1,000 accompanied the signing of the articles, and should Packer lose he will have $500 for his trouble."

Jimmy Britt in his letter says: "Packer will go into the ring here against Freddie Welsh the most perfectly trained athlete that ever crawled through the ropes, and when the fighting starts, he will go into the lead and never be headed. I look for him to knock out Welsh, but there can be no mistake about his winning the decision if the battle goes the limit."

Declares Packer Has Improved.
"I am training McFarland and know what he can do. He did it to me and Welsh is not in my class. McFarland possessed plenty of speed and cleverness when we battled in California two years ago, but to have seen him then and to see him now one would be surprised at the marvelous change."

"McFarland is faster, more clever, and can land a harder punch than when he put me away in six rounds. He has learned to shift, which reminds me of Ketchell's fighting and he has mastered it well."

margin to his favor in his fight with Charles Griffin, the Australian bantamweight, in a ten-round bout here tonight. The fourth and fifth rounds belonged to the foreigner and he was then too tired to follow up his advantage. In the last round he floored Brown with a right to the jaw, but the local boy was up in a jiffy and fighting hard.

PRINTERS CHOOSE OLD OFFICERS

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—Reports from 577 of the 700 unions of the International Typographical union indicate that with probably one exception all the national officers have been re-elected.

The exception is T. D. Fennessy of Los Angeles, the total showing that Michael Powell of Ottawa, Canada, is leading by several hundred majority in the race for trustee of the Union Printers' home at Colorado Springs.

The reports received at the general office here indicate that James M. Lynch, will be re-elected by a majority of about 7000, while Secretary J. W. Hayes' majority may reach 10,000. Unless the 100 unions which have not reported change the ballot materially, the officers chosen follow:

President—James M. Lynch, Syracuse, N. Y.
First vice president—George A. Tracy, San Francisco.
Secretary—J. W. Hayes, Minneapolis.

Delegates to the American Federation of Labor—Frank Morrison, Chicago; Max S. Hayes, Cleveland, and Hugh Stephen, Toronto.
Trustee of Printers' Home—Michael Powell, Ottawa, Canada.
Agent of the Printers' Home—Geo. P. Nichols, Baltimore.

UNION EXERCISES ON SATURDAY

The school year, which comes to a close with the end of the present week, has been a record breaker in all educational matters of Weber county, and when friends and relatives of proud boys and girls gather at the Ogden tabernacle where union commencement exercises are to be held Saturday morning, they will see the largest class in the history of the county, numbering 112 students.

The general percentage of examination papers is higher, too, and Superintendent L. E. Eggerston says that nearly all of the graduates, whose names appear below, have acquired almost perfect marks.

An exceptional good showing has been made in the department of music, which, under the direction of Supervisor L. E. Powell, has attained a degree of success never before reached in Weber county schools.

David O. McKay is to deliver the leading address to the graduates next Saturday and it is expected that President Kingsbury of the University of Utah will be here to speak on higher education. The music will be under the direction of Supervisor Powell and the program includes numbers for the

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albumen or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go but the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney troubles the last census over nine-tenths of them (58,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease" although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as and called it "kidney trouble," when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albumenous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields.

SCENE IN SKY ATTRACTS MANY

"A feast or a famine" is an old saying and last night's scene in the heavens proved to hundreds of local stargazers that the feast in matters of astronomical nature had arrived. The world had scarcely stopped wondering what would happen when the tail of Halley's comet swept old earth than the brilliant appearance of that celestial tramp in western skies again riveted attention to the heavens. Then, adding to the interest in this feature, a total eclipse of the moon was clearly visible last night.

The darkening of the lunar body began at 8:18 last night. The total eclipse occurred from 9:41 until 10:31, at which time the shadow began to leave the moon's face. The eclipse ended at 11:43, when a number of beautiful rings of light became visible around the lunar body and remained so until an early hour this morning.

Halley's comet spread its fan-like tail like a peacock displaying its charms during the time the moon was in eclipse. The comet was visible in

MARK TWAIN

A NEW EDITION

AT 1/2 PRICE

NOW for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

Mark Twain

THIS complete set of all the great humorist's works breathes his spirit—the spirit of eternal youth—they are new books; to own them is always to have new books, a fountain of youth. They never age, because humor, kindness, and truth never grow old. Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author from photographs and paintings taken at periods when the different books were in process of writing. This edition includes his later collected writings, such as "Eve's Diary," etc., etc.

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature."

THERE are beautiful pictures by such artists as Brown, Frost, Newell, Beard, Dielman, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Mora, Weldon, Kemble, Gilbert, Du Mond, Merrill, Oppen.

THE binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

the mid-western sky until 10:28 o'clock, when its brilliant light faded into darkness. On ordinary evenings the comet divides its light with that of the moon, but the eclipse afforded a most excellent view of the heavenly visitor last night, and local stargazers took advantage of the opportunity thus afforded. Eclipse parties were in vogue at many homes throughout the city and small groups of friends gathered at local cafes after an evening spent in enjoyment at the twin spectacles. The shadow of mother earth passing between the sun and moon caused the eclipse.

Taft's Comet Party.
WASHINGTON, May 23.—Through the big 26-inch telescope at the United States naval observatory, President Taft tonight, for the first time, saw Halley's comet. Having kept in close touch with its movements, the president was much interested in observing it tonight, although on account of the clouds and haze not much of the tail was visible. President Taft showed more interest in Jupiter, the moon and some of the other heavenly bodies than in the comet.

Astronomers Busy.
SAN JOSE, Cal., May 23.—Director Campbell of Lick observatory said that he saw the comet's tail for 45 degrees of its length and the eclipse of the moon took place as scheduled. A photograph of the comet was taken during the eclipse.

TOPEKA, Kas., May 23.—Eight photographs of the moon in eclipse were taken tonight at the Washington college observatory. Conditions here were unusually good for seeing both the eclipse and Halley's comet.
